

Tracing family members and reunification

because of:

- Armed conflicts
- wars
- disasters
- Forced displacement and migration
- resettlement
- 2. world war

Have you been separated from your family as a result of war, flight or migration? We can assist you in re-establishing contact with your loved ones.

International Tracing

With the support of the International Tracing Network, we help you in your global search for missing relatives. We accept your tracing requests!

Since 2013 refugees in Europe have been able to use the IKRK website www.tracetheface.org to search for their relatives by submitting a photograph. Please contact us!

Second World war

Research and clarification of the fates of missing relatives.

Family Reunification

The German red cross Tracing Service, through its counseling centers and tracing stations, provides comprehensive services for ethnic German repatriates.

Repatriates

We provide guidance to you and your family on all matters related to the Federal Expellees Act (BVFG), the Residence Act (AufenthG), and the Nationality Act (StAG).

Refugees

We offer advice on the legal requirements for family reunification to Germany and assist you throughout the visa process.

Through the global Red Cross network, family messages (Red Cross Messages) can be exchanged, even when other means of communication (telephone, email, social media, mail) are unavailable.

Tracing

The GRC Tracing Service clarifies the fates of missing persons from the Second World War and searches worldwide for people who have been separated from their relatives as a result of current armed conflicts and disasters.

Reuniting

The GRC Tracing Service advises and supports relatives who are separated by armed conflict, disaster, flight, expulsion or migration in reuniting families in Germany.

Connecting

The GRC Tracing Service enables the exchange of messages between relatives who have lost contact to each other and cannot communicate using conventional means.
